No. 14090-C

In the matter of TOM WING ART, alias WING FOOK TOM, alias SHORTY YUEN,

A resident Chinese Alien,
ON HABEAS CORPUS.

PETITION FOR WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS

To the Honorable United States District Judge now presiding in the United States District Court, in and for the Southern District of California, Southern Division:

Your Petitioner respectfully represents that he is an alien of the Chinese race, a native and citizen of China, and that he last entered the United States on June 12, 1921 at the port of San Francisco, California; and that he has at all times since said entry been and now is a resident of the State of California.

That your Petitioner is unlawfully imprisoned, detained, confined and restrained of his liberty by Walter E. Carr, District Director of Immigration and Naturalization for the port of Los Angeles, at the Immigration Station at Terminal Island, County of Los Angeles, State and Southern District of California, Southern Division thereof; that said imprisonment, detention, confinement [2] and restraint are illegal, and that the illegality thereof consists in this, to-wit:

That it is claimed by the said District Director that your Petitioner is subject to deportation from and out of the United States upon the ground that: he has been found receiving, sharing in, or deriving benefit from the earnings of a prostitute; that he has been found connected with the management of a house of prostitution; that he has been found managing a house of prostitution, or music or dance hall, or other place of amusement, or resort habitually frequented by prostitutes; or where prostitutes gather; and that the said District Director intends to deport your Petitioner away from and out of the United States to China.

That a hearing was had by your Petitioner on said charges and the testimony and records submitted to the Honorable Secretary of Labor, who issued a warrant for deportation of your Petitioner, under which warrant the said District Director of immigration is now imprisoning, detaining, confining and restraining your Petitioner, and unless this Honorable Court intervenes, intends and will deport your Petitioner from and out of the United States to China;

That it is claimed by the said District Director of immigration and the said Secretary of Labor that in all the proceedings had herein, your Petitioner was accorded a full and fair hearing; that the action of the said District Director of immigration and the said Secretary of Labor was within the powers and authorities conferred upon them by the various Acts of Congress regulating immigration and was taken and made by them in the proper exercise of the powers and discretions committed to them by statutes in such cases made and provided and in accordance with the regulations promulgated under the authorities contained in said Statutes;

But on the contrary, your petitioner, on his information and belief, alleges that the hearing and proceedings had herein and the action of said District Director of immigration and of the said Secretary of Labor was and is in excess of the powers and authorities conferred upon said District Director of immigration and said Secretary of Labor by the Act of Congress in such cases made and provided and is in excess of the authorities committed to them by the rules and regulations promulgated under said statutes and that the deportation of your petitioner, a person lawfully residing within the United States, from the United States to China on the ground that he was receiving, sharing in, or deriving benefit from the earnings of a prostitute; or he was connected with the management of a house of prostitution, or that he managed a house of prostitution, or music or dance hall, or other place of amusement, or resort, habitually frequented by prostitutes, or where prostitutes gather, was and is an abuse of the authority committed to them by said Statutes, and in excess of powers conferred upon them, the said District Director of immigration and the said Secretary of Labor, in each of the following particulars:

Your Petitioner alleges that the evidence presented before the immigration inspector and submitted to the Secretary of Labor, and upon which evidence said Secretary of Labor has issued a warrant of deportation, which evidence is now hereby referred to with same force and effect as if set forth in full herein, contains absolutely no evidence that your Petitioner at the time of the issuance of the warrant of deportation in the above-entitled matter, to-wit, August 10, 1938, or at the time of his arrest, was receiving, sharing in, or deriving benefit from the earnings of a prostitute, or that he was connected with the management of any house of prostitution, or that he was managing a house of prostitution, or music or dance hall, or other place of amusement, or resort, habitually frequented by prostitutes, or where prostitutes gather; [4] or that he has ever received, shared in, or derived benefits from the earnings of a prostitute, or been connected with the management of a house of prostitution, or managed a house of prostitution, or music or dance hall, or other place of amusement, or resort, habitually frequented by prostitutes, or where prostitutes gather; that petitioner during the course of the hearing had in the above-entitled matter before the Immigration Inspector was denied and refused the right to cross-examine adverse witnesses called by the immigration service in said procedure to the extent necessary in order to protect the interests of your petitioner;

That said action of the Director of Immigration and said Secretary of Labor in concluding that your petitioner was unlawfully within the United States and in ordering your petitioner's deportation by reason of said unlawful presence in the United States, as well as the refusal of said Director of Immigration and said Secretary of Labor to be guided by the evidence and the provisions of the Immigration Laws, providing for the offenses for which deportation may be ordered, and the said adverse action of said District Director and said Secretary of Labor in finding that your petitioner is unlawfully in the United States, was, your petitioner alleges, upon his information and belief, arrived at and done in denying your petitioner a fair hearing and a consideration of his case to which he was entitled;

Your Petitioner further alleges that the evidence produced before the Immigration Inspector and submitted to the Secretary of Labor, and upon which evidence the said Secretary of Labor issued said warrant of deportation, which evidence is hereby referred to with same force and effect as if set forth in full herein, was of such a conclusive kind and character establishing that your petitioner on the date when the warrant of arrest was issued and at the time of his arrest was not "found receiving, sharing in, or deriving benefit from the earnings of a prostitute, or found connected with the management of a house of prostitution, or managing a house of [5] prostitution, or music or dance hall, or other place of amusement, or resort, habitually frequented by prostitutes, or where prostitutes gather"; that the refusal of said District Director of Immigration and said Secretary of Labor to be guided by said evidence and the adverse action of said District Director of immigration and said Secretary of Labor was your petitioner alleges, upon his information and belief, arrived at and done in denying your petitioner a fair hearing and fair consideration of his case to which he was entitled; and that said action of said District Director of Immigration and said Secretary of Labor was in excess of the power and authority vested in them, or either one of them, under the Immigration laws.

That your petitioner has not in his possession any of the immigration records, and he has been unable to secure copies thereof from the immigration authorities and your petitioner herewith alleges his willingness to incorporate and have considered as part and parcel of this petition the entire immigration records, and requests that the same may be attached hereto and made a part hereof and marked "Exhibit A", and presented to the Court at a hearing to be had on said petition.

That it is the intention of said District Director of immigration and of said Secretary of Labor to deport your petitioner away from and out of the United States to China in the very near future and unless this Court intervenes to prevent said deportation, your petitioner will be deprived of his right to reside and remain in the United States, to which right he claims he is legally entitled.

Wherefore, your petitioner prays that a Writ of Habeas Corpus issue herein as prayed for, directed to the said Walter E. Carr, District Director of immigration, commanding and directing him to hold the body of your petitioner within the jurisdiction of this Court and to present the body of your petitioner before this Court at a time and place to be specified in said order, together with the time and cause of his detention, so that the same may be inquired into to the end that your petitioner may be restored to his liberty and [6] go hence without day.

HABEAS CORPUS

The President of the United States of America
To Walter E. Carr, District Director of Immigration and Naturalization—Greeting:

You Are Hereby Commanded, that the body of Tom Wing Art, alias Wing Fook Tom, alias Shorty Yuen, by you restrained of his liberty, as it is said detained by whatsoever names the said Tom Wing

Art, alias Wing Fook Tom, alias Shorty Yuen, may be detained, together with the day and cause of being taken and detained, you have before the Honorable George Cosgrave, Judge of the United States District Court in and for the Southern District of California, at the court room of said Court, in the City of Los Angeles at 10:00 o'clock a. m., on the 13th day of November, 1939, then and there to do, submit to and receive whatsoever the said Judge shall then and there consider in that behalf; and have you then and there this writ.

Witness the Honorable Geo. Cosgrave, United States District Judge at Los Angeles, California, this 2nd day of October, A. D. 1939,

R. S. ZIMMERMAN,

Clerk.

RETURN TO WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS

I, Walter E. Carr, District Director of U. S. Immigration and Naturalization Service, Los Angeles, California District No. 20, Respondent herein, for my return to writ of habeas corpus herein, do hereby certify that I am unable to produce the body of Tom Wing Art, alias Wing Fook Tom, alias Shorty Yuen before this Honorable Court for the reason that the said Tom Wing Art, alias Wing Fook Tom, alias Shorty Yuen was released on bond in the sum of Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000.00) by order of this Honorable Court made and entered on October 2, 1939.

For further return to said writ I hereby certify that the true cause of the detention of the aforesaid Tom Wing Art, alias Wing Fook Tom, alias Shorty Yuen is the authority contained in a certain warrant of deportation duly and regularly issued on the 14th day of August, 1939 by Turner W. Battle, Assistant to the Secretary of Labor, after a hearing duly and regularly held before an Immigrant Inspector of the United States.

A copy of said warrant of deportation is attached hereto marked Exhibit "A".

Respectfully submitted,

WALTER E. CARR,

District Director of U. S. Immigration and Naturalization Service, Los Angeles, California, District No. 20, Respondent. [11]

EXHIBIT "A"

WARRANT—DEPORTATION OF ALIEN

United States of America

Department of Labor

Washington

No. 16539/208

To: District Director of Immigration and Naturalization, Los Angeles, Calif.

Or to any Officer or Employee of the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service.

Whereas, from proofs submitted to me, Assistant to the Secretary, after due hearing before an authorized immigrant inspector, I have become satisfied that the alien Tom Wing Art or Tam Wing Fook or Tom Wing Fook or Wing Fook Tom alias Tommy Yen or Yuen alias Shorty Yen or Yuen, who entered the United States at San Francisco, California on the 12th day of June, 1921 is subject to deportation under section 19 of the Immigration Act of February 5, 1917, being subject thereto under the following provisions of the laws of the United States, to-wit: The Act of 1917, in that he has been found connected with the management of a house of prostitution; that he has been found receiving, sharing in, or deriving benefit from the earnings of a prostitute; and that he has been found managing a house of prostitution, or music or dance hall or other place of amusement, or resort, habitually frequented by prostitutes, or where prostitutes gather.

I, the undersigned officer of the United States, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by and under the laws of the United States, do hereby command you to deport the said alien to China, at the expense of the appropriation, "General Expenses, Immigration and Naturalization Service, 1940", including the expenses of an attendant, if necessary. The alien may be permitted to depart, or ship foreign one way, without expense to the United States, to any country of his choice, except contiguous territory or adjacent islands, on consent of surety, such departure to be verified and considered a satisfactory compliance with the terms of the warrant, but alien should be advised that he will not, under existing law, be eligible to apply for entry to the United States until after one year following date of deportation, and then only if the Secretary of Labor has authorized him to apply for admission. Delivery of the alien and acceptance for deportation or departure in accordance with the foregoing will be deemed sufficient to cancel the outstanding delivery bond.

For so doing this shall be your sufficient warrant.

Witness my hand and seal this 14th day of August, 1939.

(s) TURNER W. BATTLE,
Assistant to the Secretary of Labor.

Received copy of the within Return to Writ of Habeas Corpus this 13th day of November, 1939.

STATEMENT OF POINTS ON WHICH
APPELLANT INTENDS TO RELY

Comes now the above named appellant, Tom Wing Art, by his attorneys, Hugh Sanders, H. P. L. Beck and William H. Wylie, and states that the points upon which he, the appellant, intends to rely in this appeal are, as follows:

1. That the District Court erred in dismissing the Writ of Habeas Corpus and remanding appellant to the Immigration authorities;
2. That the District Court erred in sustaining the Secretary of Labor in directing the deportation of appellant from the United States;

3. That the record contains no evidence tending to establish that appellant “received, shared in or derived benefit from the earnings of a prostitute”;

4. That the record contains no evidence tending to establish that appellant was “found connected with the management of a house of prostitution”;

5. That the record contains no evidence tending to establish that applicant was “found managing a house of prostitution, or music or dance hall or other place of amusement, or resort, habitually frequented by prostitutes, or where prostitutes gather”; [25]

6. That the record contains no evidence tending to establish that appellant has committed any deportable offense;

7. That the record contains no evidence that appellant was “found connected with the management of a house of prostitution” or “found managing a house of prostitution, etc.” at time the warrant of arrest was issued by Secretary of Labor or at time of his arrest;

8. That the record contains no evidence tending to establish that appellant has committed any of the deportable offenses set forth in the Warrant of arrest or contained in the Warrant of Deportation issued by Secretary of Labor under which the said Secretary of Labor seeks to deport appellant from the United States.

9. That the order of the United States District Court sustaining the warrant of deportation issued by Secretary of Labor directing the deportation of appellant is against the law.

STATEMENT OF POINTS ON WHICH
APPELLANT INTENDS TO RELY

Comes now the above-named appellant, Tom Wing Art, by his attorneys, Hugh Sanders, H. P. L. Beck and William H. Wylie, and states that the points upon which he, the appellant, intends to rely in this appeal are, as follows:

1. That the District Court erred in dismissing the Writ of Habeas Corpus and remanding appellant to the Immigration authorities;

2. That the District Court erred in sustaining the Secretary of Labor in directing the deportation of appellant from the United States;

3. That the record contains no evidence tending to establish that appellant “received, shared in or derived benefit from the earnings of a prostitute”;

4. That the record contains no evidence tending to establish that appellant was “found connected with the management of a house of prostitution”;

5. That the record contains no evidence tending to establish that applicant was “found managing a house of prostitution, or music or dance hall or other place of amusement, or resort, habitually frequented by prostitutes, or where prostitutes gather”;

6. That the record contains no evidence tending to establish that appellant has committed any deportable offense;

7. That the record contains no evidence that appellant was “found connected with the management of a house of prostitution” or “found managing a house of prostitution, etc.” at time the warrant of arrest was issued by Secretary of Labor or at time of his arrest;

8. That the record contains no evidence tending to establish that appellant has committed any of the deportable offenses set forth in the Warrant of arrest or contained in the Warrant of Deportation issued by Secretary of Labor under which the said Secretary of Labor seeks to deport appellant from the United States.

9. That the order of the United States District Court sustaining the warrant of deportation issued by Secretary of Labor directing the deportation of appellant is against the law.
